

THE SHRINERS' BUSY DAY

Programme Crowded With Important and Interesting Events.

From Sunrise Till Midnight the Nobles Will Own the City—Parades, Banquets, Fireworks, Trolley Rides, Illuminations, and Receptions—Session of Imperial Council.

TUESDAY, MAY 22.

8:30 a. m.—Carriages will be waiting at G Street entrance to Riggs Hotel for Imperial Potentate, officers, Past Imperial Potentate, and representatives, who will be escorted to place of formation of the morning parade.

8:45 a. m.—All Arab patrols, acting as escort to the Imperial Council, will report to their respective stations as published in orders.

9:00 a. m.—The parade of Arab patrols, escorted by the Imperial Potentate and members of the oil event and the evening dress suit parade for the 6,000 or more Nobles of all stations. It is believed that both will be notable among the parades that the Capital City has witnessed.

The morning event will show the superb mounted Arab patrol of Almas Temple, the only mounted patrol in the world, to the best advantage. The organization is to be the special escort of the Imperial Potentate.

Grand Marshal Naylor has issued the following order relating to the morning parade:

"The parade will consist of an escort to the Imperial Council, from the Riggs Hotel, to the Columbian, the place of meeting. This parade is to be of a spectacular nature and will be participated in by the Arab patrols only.

The prescribed costume, viz., black cutaway coat, black vest, black necktie, white duck pants, black top boots or black shoes with black leggings, and in dark blue saddle cloth trimmed with yellow, will report to the chief of staff, in Fourteenth Street between Pennsylvania Avenue and P Street on the morning of May 22, at 8:30 o'clock sharp, and on the evening of the same day at Fifteenth and K Streets at 6:45 o'clock sharp for assignment to duty.

The following details are herewith announced:

"Members of the staff will be detailed to attend to the Imperial Council and the several patrols, to see that they arrive at the place of formation on time and move off promptly as soon as the preceding sub-division has attained proper distance; after which they will report to the grand marshal and take their proper positions on the staff.

"Formation.—The Arab patrols are not restricted as to their formation or movements on the march so long as they do not delay or retard the progress of the parade.

"The parade will form in K Street near Paragon Square, eight o'clock on Seventeenth Street, and the several Arab patrols, constituting the escort of the Imperial Council, will report to the places designated on the map at the morning of May 22, and report to the chief of staff promptly at 8:45 a. m."

The evening parade is one of the evening dress suit functions that have made the Ancient and Arabic order famous. It is not a usual sight to see 6,000 men march down Pennsylvania Avenue in evening suits to the accompaniment of a dozen bands and a flame of six tons of illuminating powder. It is especially requested that every Noble in the city tonight will take part in this parade.

"The parade will form in K Street near Paragon Square, eight o'clock on Seventeenth Street, and the several Arab patrols, constituting the escort of the Imperial Council, will report to the places designated on the map at the morning of May 22, and report to the chief of staff promptly at 8:45 a. m."

10:00 a. m.—Imperial Council convenes at Columbian Theatre. All Nobles and ladies are invited to witness the formal ceremonies prior to the business session.

10:20 a. m.—All Shriners' ladies are invited to a trolley ride about the city and suburbs. Cars will leave terminals, G Street side of Riggs Hotel, beginning at 10:20 o'clock sharp, and will be under direction of the ladies' reception committee.

1:00 p. m.—A steamboat ride and plank-shed dinner to members of the Imperial Council only. Representatives will wear their badges as such.

7:00 p. m.—Parade of all Nobles. Dress suits and ties. The route is a very short one, and it is hoped every Noble will be in line.

8:00 p. m.—Illumination of Pennsylvania Avenue from Third to Seventeenth Streets, at the parade passes up the Avenue.

9:00 p. m.—Parade reviewed by the Imperial Potentate from the south front of Lafayette Square. Seats will be reserved for members of Imperial Council and all visiting ladies.

9:30 p. m.—Display of fireworks from the Monument grounds. (Illumination and fireworks by Pils of New York.)

10:00 p. m.—Reception at headquarters of visiting Temples. Almas Temple will keep "open house" all the time at National Rifle Army.

10:30 p. m.—Banquet to the Imperial Council at the Riggs Hotel. (Members of the Imperial Council will assemble in parlors and lobby of the hotel at 9:45 o'clock.)

The Shrine programme for today is the most important of the week. Every hour from shortly after sunrise to nearly midnight is filled to overflowing. Two parades, a trolley ride for the Shriners' ladies, a plank shed banquet on the Potomac for the Imperial Council, an illumination of Pennsylvania Avenue, a fireworks display, and a second banquet for the Imperial Council make up the lighter portions of the official programme, and in addition to them there will be the convening of the Imperial Council and its first business session.
